Summary

Till yesterday "I Loved What I was Doing" and Today "I am Doing What I Love".

From a seasoned professional (Ex Assistant Director at EY) to following my Heart to being

- A Coach / Mentor to Young Learners and Young Professionals. I have mentored many and i would be happy to Mentor you as well :)
- A Storyteller - Sip your next cup of Tea / Coffee while reading my posts every Monday and Thursday.
- An upcoming Author

My Academia (CA, MBA, CIMA etc.) gave me tremendous opportunities to learn different facets of Finance & Accounting and contribute to the Goals of EY, British Council, HSBC, Google, American Express and Genpact.

Travelling is my passion. It allows me to unwind myself, meet new people, understand different cultures and create infinite memories.

Through one of my self-written quotes i truly believe One of my quote is as follows "Life should be a Collage of Experiences and not just an Accumulation of Wealth".

I am a conversationalist and because it is not difficult to engage in a good one, I am up for it anytime and every time

I co-founded Hridaya Foundation to bring education closer to the not so privileged children. Trust me they are more passionate and honest about their aspirations than anyone else. Empathize with them and they will be your true friends
